

Image 1

- What does each of the flags represent?
- The four people are represented standing on a rise looking up and out. What does this represent?
- The four people have been photographed from below in a “hero shot”. Why did the artist do this?
- What does this picture say about identity — personal and Australian?

Image 2

- Hands are a powerful symbol in Indigenous art, culture and politics. Each of these images of hands is expressing something different — what are the artists of each of the photographs saying?

- How does each of these photographs make you feel?
- Do you think there is any symbolic significance in the way the black and white hands have been placed? What does the placement of the hands say about power and reconciliation?

